

NEVERTOOLATE Films Presents The Dru Barber Memorial Scholarship Fund Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

What is the Dru Barber Memorial Scholarship Fund?

This scholarship program is intended exclusively for graduates of six man schools in Texas. It is named after the producer's late mother, an elementary school teacher from Lubbock, Texas.

What is the purpose of the fund?

We want to raise awareness of the value of the rural school experience. Because median incomes in rural Texas are below state averages, the expense of a university education is often difficult for residents of rural communities. The Dru Barber Memorial Scholarship Fund is designed to help bridge that gap. We also hope that the scholarship initiative will be a way to give something back to the rural Texas communities who were so kind to us during our many seasons filming the documentary Six Man, Texas.

Who qualifies for the scholarships?

Any graduate of a public high school in Texas that participates in 1A six man football programs, who is in good standing and who has been accepted to a Texas institution of higher learning, qualifies for consideration. Qualifying graduates must have been accepted to a Texas university or college for the purpose of obtaining a Bachelor's degree. In addition, the candidate must have exhibited the desire and ability to excel in their chosen subjects during high school. These subjects can be in academic or athletic fields or in any other area where discipline, focus, and desire will lead to fulfillment and success. They must also exhibit the desire and possess the tools needed to complete at least a Bachelor's degree in their chosen field. Other qualifications, such as a compelling need for economic assistance or the development of a unique career path, will also be taken into consideration.

Must you have played six man football or be a student athlete to qualify?

No, any graduate of a six man public school in good standing will qualify. In fact, we encourage students to apply no matter what their academic or athletic focus might be.

Are there other qualifications?

No, but there is one primary consideration. Of all the candidate's qualifications, the absolute desire for a higher education is the most important, for it is the passionate desire to constantly learn and grow that will produce the future leaders of Texas.

What is the source of the funds?

NEVERTOOLATE Film's fundraising initiatives will be the primary source for the fund. An important source of revenue will be from business and personal sponsorships of Special Screenings of NEVERTOOLATE Film's documentary Six Man, Texas, as well as other revenue surrounding those events. All revenues generated from any event after expenses are deducted will be used to support the fund. The filmmakers will be reimbursed only for direct expenses incurred. Additional future revenues will come from a portion of the sale of DVDs after Six Man, Texas is released and a portion of any theatrical or broadcast revenues generated in the future. NEVERTOOLATE Films will seek funds from any and all possible sources to continue to support the Dru Barber Memorial Scholarship Fund into the future.

Who will administer the fund?

The fund will be administered by the Texas Six-Man Coaches Association. The granting of yearly scholarship amounts from the fund to qualified students will be at the sole discretion of the Texas Six-Man Coaches Association and NEVERTOOLATE Films.

When will the scholarships be granted?

One or more scholarships will be granted yearly from the Dru Barber Memorial Scholarship Fund to qualifying student candidates. The scholarships will be delivered to the qualifying student candidates during the Texas Six-Man All-Star Games in July of each year.

What is the value of each scholarship?

The value of each scholarship granted will be determined by the Texas Six-Man Coaches Association in accordance with guidelines to be developed by NEVERTOOLATE Films and the Texas Six-Man Coaches Association. The minimum value will be $1,000.

How can I apply for the Dru Barber Memorial scholarship?

An online, downloadable application form will be available in December 2007. The application deadline will be April 1st of each year. See www.sixmantexas.com for details.
